Description of the CIRO PPOA

1. On October 25, 2010 PREPA and Ciro One Salinas, LLC entered into the original CIRO PPOA relating to the purchase of renewable energy from photovoltaic solar project with a capacity of 90 MW located in Aguirre, Salinas, Puerto Rico.

2. In early 2019, PREPA determined to renegotiate certain of the approximately 50 PPOAs for non-operating renewable projects that PREPA had originally entered into between 2009 and 2012, and later renegotiated in and around 2014 (the “Non-Operating PPOAs”). The prices originally agreed under the Non-Operating PPOAs were above the current market price and above the price target set in PREPA’s Fiscal Plan, with uncapped escalation and additional charges for renewable energy credits. If developed under those terms, the energy prices and contractual conditions in the Non-Operating PPOAs would have imposed a large financial burden on PREPA and the ratepayers of Puerto Rico. With that in mind, PREPA initiated extensive, arms-length negotiations with the Non-Operating PPOA developers in early 2019.

3. The negotiation of amendments to the CIRO PPOA resulted in a reduction in the per kilowatt-hour (kWh) price of energy to be provided under the agreement. The CIRO PPOA, as amended, now includes the sale of both renewable energy and renewable energy certificates, at a cost of $ 0.0989/kWh and, if approved, the project would enter into commercial operation two (2) years after the beginning of its construction, thus contributing to the requirements of the Renewable Energy Portfolio. The initial price is subject to an annual escalation of two percent (2%) applied July 1 of each year of the CIRO PPOA (beginning the year after the project enters into commercial operation), provided that the rate to be paid in any year of the CIRO PPOA does not exceed a maximum of $0.141/kWh.

4. On May 28, 2020, the PREPA Governing Board approved the execution of the amendments to the CIRO PPOA pursuant to Resolution 4798. On March 1, 2021, the Oversight Board approved the CIRO PPOA as amended under the contract review policy² implemented by the Oversight Board, confirming the CIRO PPOA's compliance with the Fiscal Plan. On June 10, 2021, PREB issued Resolution and Order approving the CIRO PPOA as amended.³

5. No cure costs are due or payable as a result of the assumption of the CIRO PPOA pursuant to section 365(b) of the Bankruptcy Code.
